

Message from the Department Chairperson

I am pleased to welcome you to the Department of Western Languages, Faculty of Humanities, Srinakharinwirot University. Our department offers both undergraduate and graduate programs in English. If you are interested in our academic programs, please contact Dr. Watthana Suksiripakonchai, Department Secretary, at watthanas@g.swu.ac.th for program details.

Our department also runs a Community English program for anyone interested in studying English with a professional native or non-native English speaker at a low cost. The courses in this program include listening, speaking, reading, and writing at different ability levels. Please visit our website at <http://west.hu.swu.ac.th/> or call us at (02) 649-5000 Ext. 1-6219 for more information.

All the programs and courses offered in our department are designed to improve your English skills and prepare you for daily communication, working in local and international organizations, or pursuing your studies at higher levels. Most importantly, on behalf of the Department of Western Languages, I would like to tell you that we want to prepare you for success in your career-and beyond-in the 21st century.

Thank you very much for your interest in our department.

Yours,

Saiwaroon Chumpavan, Ed.D.
